

DESIGN WORKSHOP

Create a Garden of Connection

DIRTSCAPE DREAMING

gardens of sanctuary for wellbeing

Some feel clarity and excitement of their purpose with a long view, while others yearn for quiet reflection inward from a nestled wildness, seeking tranquility within. In this heart filling one day workshop, discover what you need and learn how to bring it together in a personalised and inspiring garden space. No drawing or design skills needed, just a desire for connection to what's inside of you. This overview workshop forms the basis of others to come. With Betsy-Sue Clarke, Founder, Dirtscape Dreaming

ON: Friday July 15th, 10 - 3pm
AT: Spirited New Beginnings
52 Kars St, Frankston

$ 95 per person, inc. morning tea & lunch.

This overview workshop forms the basis of others to come, including developing the design idea further with materials selection & design, DIY building tips, creating a planting plan and the basics of soil building for planting establishment. Each workshop can be done as individual topics once this first workshop is completed.

Together in a small group, Betsy-Sue's inclusive and special way of working with people, sharing stories while helping them gently discover what lies within, brings insights that bring about positive change. Her passion to share knowledge freely and with love means it is always an uplifting workshop full of possibilities.

Betsy-Sue Clarke is the Director and Principal designer of multi-award winning Dirtscape Dreaming, dedicated for 22 years to helping people connect to Nature through highly creative & intuitive landscape design & garden creation, sharing of knowledge and providing opportunities for self discovery. Betsy-Sue has a unique holistic approach to design and is a knowledgeable and passionate presenter, educator and life long learner.

Love from previous workshops...

"Wonderful, inspirational, absolutely healing. The most lovely course I have ever done. Thankyou.." Fran

"I feel like the classes with you helped me to return to this path, awakening something in me. The timing was divine. Thank you Betsy-Sue" Bron

"Such an amazing course - so much more than expected. To design your own garden - but a healing garden that just keeps giving back to yourself was so unthought of before this course and I'm so grateful for what Betsy-Sue has helped us create. Namaste" Teresa

"My favourite course I have ever done and loved learning how to create my own garden too. It has been a pleasure to have Betsy-Sue give this course in a safe and pleasant learning environment. Thanks so much." Jenny
